

The consequences of making choices from the Career Treasure Trove® Start! Switch or Treasure?

Start!

The careers or industries under this option are easily attainable. A limited amount of effort is necessary to concretize steps toward the desired direction. You have enough knowledge and experience, and you will enjoy it. If you have nothing noted here, the need for a switch is very clear and perhaps inevitable.

Switch

The selected careers or industries noted under this option require more investment to realize. Perhaps a limited training program or course facilitates gaining the necessary experience. The questions you need to answer are:
“How motivated am I to invest, does it suit me, and to what extent am I confident that this job suits me? Does it enhance my chances of getting the job I wanted? Conversations with people who work in similar fields can help you confirm your motivation.

Treasure?

The careers or industries noted under ‘Treasure?’ cause a fundamental change in your professional life and might stir up your private life as well. It unveils the necessity of rigorous changes, and this often happens at a “crossroad” in your life.
“Am I ready for it?” That is the question you must ask yourself. Here, your motivation is of the utmost importance. In addition, you need solid self-confidence, a clear vision of the future, and insight into your motives and beliefs.

This option means that a substantial investment might be needed to achieve your goals.

You may need to convince your partner and family. Extensive training aimed at this career or industry is inevitable.

At the same time, this training will be the fastest way to guide you in the right direction and offer you entrance to your dream job! That is the best way to initiate change in a responsible manner. You immediately get to know the field because you meet lecturers and students who are already working in this area.

This option is called ‘Treasure?’ because it generates a lot of questions and challenges. But ultimately, it shows that it embodies the most interesting choices, which closely match your intrinsic motivation. Don’t regard it too quickly as an impossible goal! Nothing is impossible!

Increasing opportunities

To increase your chances and minimize risks, you can choose a career noted under ‘Start’ and an industry from ‘Treasure?’ or vice versa. This method frequently produces unexpected ideas!

Career Treasure Trove®

©2023 Annet Brinkhuis

Published by annetbrinkhuiscoachingtools.com

All rights reserved.